

RIGHTS OF STRIKERS TO PICKET WORKS

ONE OF THE ISSUES IN THE KIDD TRIAL AT OSHKOSH

It Will Be Legally Determined Whether Or Not Pickets May Endeavor To Intimidate Those Who Want To Work—Scope of the Prosecution Is A Wide One.

Oshkosh, Wis., Oct. 20.—The practice of picketing factories in the recent strike will figure prominently in the conspiracy trial of Thomas I. Kidd. The testimony yesterday all related to that feature and it was evidently the intent of the state to prove the active participation and responsibility of Mr. Kidd with reference to that feature.

Mr. Kidd's presence in the city was shown by W. H. Clark, of the Revore House. M. P. Kimball, of the Woodworkers' Council, gave the names of the officers of the various unions in the city. William Wapley and Frank Gruse, strikers, and men who had served as pickets, related the proceedings of woodworkers' meetings when the strike was under contemplation, and when the letter to the manufacturers was being drafted. Mr. Kidd, they said, was present and took part in the meetings.

The witnesses described in detail the picket system—why the pickets were secured and their duties explained to them. The effect of pickets in keeping the men from work was also brought out. It was shown that on the Sunday preceding the strike, after the men had voted to remain away from work, Mr. Kidd called for volunteer pickets and that defendant Zentner had a great deal to do with selecting pickets.

Colonel Weed, who opened for the defense, declared that when the testimony has all been taken the jury will be called upon not only to decide whether the defendants had been guilty of conspiracy, but also whether the complaining witness and other firms interested had not conspired together for the purpose of persecuting the defendants and driving them out of the city. The evidence would show, he contended, that the defendants were the victims and not the conspirators.

READY FOR WAR.

Warning Given France That Great Britain Will Fight.

London, Oct. 20.—Speaking at North Shields Wednesday Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, chancellor of the exchequer, said he hoped and believed that the upper Nile question was capable of amicable solution by France and Great Britain, but if, unhappily, another view was taken elsewhere, the ministers knew what their duty demanded of them.

It would be a great calamity if, after a peace of eighty years, the two nations were launched on a great war, but there were greater evils than war, and the government would not shrink from anything that might come, knowing that they were supported by a united people.

The words of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach have produced a profound impression, especially in view of the semi-official statement in Paris that Marchand would be withdrawn from Fashoda as soon as the special messenger now on the way from him should arrive. The persistence with which certain Paris papers announce extraordinary naval activity, in the face of official denials, is also far from reassuring.

Bryan Has Not Asked Release.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The war department Wednesday gave out the following: "The secretary of war, on being asked about the report that Col. William J. Bryan, Third Nebraska, had been refused leave of absence and kept with his regiment, authorized the statement that Col. Bryan had asked no indulgence whatever of the war department, so that none had been refused him. Any reports to the contrary are without foundation in fact."

Manufacturers Meet.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 20.—The fifth annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers began here Wednesday. Nearly 400 delegates are in attendance, representing many million dollars of invested capital. The committee on freight and transportation presented a lengthy report, which was largely devoted to argument in favor of a national classification of freight rates.

Work of Episcopalians.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The Episcopal convention continued its sessions Wednesday. In the house of deputies it was decided not to create a missionary diocese in southern Indiana. The state was divided into two dioceses. The bishop of Indiana has elected to take the northern diocese. The old diocese will be called upon later to elect a bishop.

The house of bishops adopted what is known as the Huntington resolution authorizing bishops to take under their spiritual guidance congregations which accept the essential tenets of the church, although they do not strictly observe the church ritual.

BRIEFS FROM BELOIT

W. C. T. U. Convention—Paving Contract Let—The Ministerial Union.

Beloit, Oct. 20.—[Special].—The annual district convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union will be held in this city October 26 and 27. In connection with this convention there will be held a grand gold medal contest. Wednesday evening, Oct. 26. It will consist of recitations by five contestants. Music will be furnished by some of our best local talent. Thursday evening, Oct. 27 Miss Marie C. Brehm, of Chicago, one of the national superintendents of the W. C. T. U., will speak.

At the regular meeting of the common council Monday night it was decided to give the contract for constructing a sewer to R. F. Finley, of Janesville, he being the lowest bidder. The sewer will extend from Bluff street to the river. As soon as the weather clears up there will be four blocks on the west side paved with brick, and there is a great deal more street work to be done, which will be a great benefit in every way.

The one hundred and fifty-seventh meeting of the ministerial association of Beloit, was held yesterday at the residence of Rev. C. D. Merrill. This association holds meetings several times a year, and they are usually held in Beloit. It consists of Presbyterian and Congregational ministers of southern Wisconsin and northern Illinois. The program yesterday included a prayer meeting, followed by a sermon by Prof. H. M. Whitney of Beloit. Rev. Fred Staff, of Fort Atkinson, Rev. Ben Ezra Stiles Ely, Jr., of Rockford, gave essays in the afternoon and Hon. F. J. Lamb, of Madison, spoke in the evening.

Klondike Output: $8,000,000. Seattle, Wash., Oct. 20.—The cleanup of the Seattle assay office and the San Francisco mint of the season's output of the Klondike district yield $8,000,000. Superintendent Wing of the former said that his office had taken in $4,400,000 and the San Francisco mint $3,600,000. Besides this, it is estimated that dust equaling $500,000 was sent to Philadelphia, Denver and Helena. The local assay office has advised of a single consignment of $663,000 now en route here.

Col. Clark for Moderator.

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 20.—The attendance at the state Presbyterian synod and the synodical missionary meetings is in excess of expectations. Dr. James Lewis of Joliet, the retiring moderator, delivered the opening sermon. The Rev. David Clark of Galena was elected moderator without opposition. He was colonel of the Sixteenth Ohio volunteers in the rebellion and is a very able and distinguished minister.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS AT MILWAUKEE

ANNUAL CONCLAVE WILL MEET NOVEMBER 1

Will Convene at the Asylum of Wisconsin Commandery—Many Distinguished Knights From All Over The State Will Be Present—Janesville Will Be Represented.

The grand commandery of Knights Templars of the state of Wisconsin will meet in annual conclave at Milwaukee on Tuesday afternoon, November 1, at the asylum of Wisconsin Commandery No. 1. Janesville Commandery No. 2 will be represented by the three principal officers, who are W. F. Carle, eminent commander; E. O. Kimberley, generalissimo; and W. H. Willis, captain general.

Owing to the regulation of the railroad companies requiring an attendance of 100 in order to secure railroad rates, it has been found impossible to make any arrangement for the benefit of the delegates on this occasion.

In addition to the usual routine business of the conclave, an item of especial interest will be the presentation of a prize to the commandery which shall receive the award, from the committee appointed for that purpose, as having attained the highest percentage of merit at the annual inspection.

The conclave will bring together many of the most eminent Masons in the state—men who have attained a national as well as a state reputation. Wisconsin masons of every degree enjoy an enviable standing all over the world. Their work is the most perfect and consistent of any in the United States, and the standard of membership has been maintained at an exceptionally high plane. The military drill of the members, too, has been exceptionally fine, and wherever a Wisconsin Knight Templar goes he is assured of a hearty welcome from brother Sir Knights.

There is, as far as the general public knows, little strife for the offices at the approaching conclave. It has been the custom heretofore, to promote to the grand offices only such members as have demonstrated their ability and zeal for the welfare of the order, and this practice will doubtless be followed this year. As far as known none of the Janesville Knights are candidates for any of the elective offices. One of them, however, may be honored by appointment to a subordinate position.

MINERS STICK TO DEMAND.

President Hunter Declares Compromise Impossible.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 20.—President John M. Hunter of the United Mine Workers of Illinois is here to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the organization. In speaking of the purpose of the meeting President Hunter said:

"The situation at Pana and at Virden will be given the closest attention, and you may deny most emphatically that there is one word of truth in the statement made by Lukens that the miners are weakening. Nothing but the Springfield scale of 40 cents will satisfy the miners, and if there is any proposition to be made it will have to come from Lukens and his associates."

When asked what the outcome of the Virden trouble would be, President Hunter said: "We mean to prosecute the case to the end. Lukens, York and Loucks will have to answer for murder in the courts and we will not stop until justice is meted out to them."

SEVEN INDIANS SURRENDER.

Dramatic Scene at Walker, Minn.—Other Offenders Wanted.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 20.—Probably the most unique and dramatic surrender in the history of warfare was that which occurred at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, just two weeks after the bloody battle of Sugar point. Seven of the Indians concerned in that fierce onslaught appeared and gave themselves up to the newspaper correspondents, representing St. Paul, Minneapolis, Chicago and New York papers. Old Bog-Ah-Ma-Ge-Shig and his son refused to surrender. The Chippewas promise to go after them and bring them in dead or alive.

The Royal Neighbors' committee will meet at Mrs. George Palmer's tomorrow evening.

DEWEY CAPTURES REBEL PIRATES

SHIPS BELONGING TO PHILIPPINES ARE TAKEN

Were Committing Acts Of Piracy on The Coast of Luzon—Troops of Occupation Start For Cuba—Naval Dry Docks To Be Constructed At San Juan.

Santiago, Oct. 20.—[Special].—The benefits of American control in Cuba are strikingly manifest in Santiago. Perhaps the most notable change in the city is its cleanliness. General Wood has had charge of all sanitary affairs, and the city was never so clean in its history. Business is also picking up, and the receipts of the custom house are beginning to show respectable figures. At first the business people were afraid that the government was not going to protect them in their dealings, consequently they hesitated to embark in commercial enterprises. This feeling of uncertainty has now disappeared, and merchants are beginning to invest and money is beginning to circulate at a gratifying rate. The people of Santiago prove amenable to civil authority. They do not require strict martial law in Santiago, which fact speaks well for the future relations between this country and Cuba.

WEYLER IS SILENCED

Southern Spain, which was causing the authorities so much uneasiness.

GIVES SATISFACTION.

Destruction of the Philippine Fleet Is Looked Upon as a Blessing.

Washington, Oct. 20.—[Special].—The reported destruction of the Philippine navy by Admiral Dewey gives much satisfaction here. For some time past this fleet—an insignificant one in point of prowess and number—has been committing depredations along the coast of Luzon. The methods of the commanders have been purely piratical, no other motive than the securing of booty having governed their action. There was great danger that some of the acts of these commanders would involve this country in trouble with other nations. The destruction of the vessels removes this danger, besides being sufficient moral amends for any unlawful acts they may have committed in the past.

NAVAL STATION AT SAN JUAN

Large Dry Docks Will Be Constructed By the Government

Washington, Oct. 20.—[Special].—There is to be no delay in carrying out the purpose of the acquisition of Porto Rico by the United States. A naval station is to be established at San Juan at once and Admiral Schley will be placed in command. The harbor is well adapted for such a purpose and dry docks will be erected capable of raising the largest of our vessels of war. The need of such docks was keenly felt during the late conflict, when it was found necessary that the bottoms of our ships should be cleaned of barnacles by divers—a very unsatisfactory and slow process.

SPAIN'S PHILIPPINE CONVENTION

It Is Explained By A Pro-Spanish French Newspaper

Paris, Oct. 20.—[Special].—The Gaulois says when the United States issued its protocol Spain answered that it accepted the terms on condition that Spain's rights over the Philippines were not mentioned in the document, but should be reserved. No objection, Gaulois says, was made to this in Washington, and a verbal assurance was given that the United States would honor this condition.

MAY BE A SPANISH CANARD

THE FIGHT AT MANILA

Washington Is Without an Official Report of the Occurrence

Still No Verdict at Virden.

Virden, Ill., Oct. 20.—The coroner's inquest is still in session and bids fair to continue for many days unless it is abruptly closed through a special session of the grand jury which is called in session for next Monday at Carlinville. The witnesses Wednesday were all miners and women who witnessed the battle from the street that faces the railroad tracks. Their evidence developed no new features save only the fact that no witness saw a single shot fired from the miners and the further fact that the deadly fire came from the pasture on the east side of the railroad, where not more than 300 men were stationed. Over fifty witnesses have been subpoenaed to attend the grand jury, and it is expected that over 100 will yet be called.

Rating on War Revenue Tax.

Washington, Oct. 20.—An important ruling has been made by the commissioner of internal revenue which will result in a criminal prosecution of parties who fail to comply therewith. Every special taxpayer making a sworn return on form 11 within a calendar month, when his liability began, thereby escaping 50 per cent finally, must pay the tax not later than the last day of that month. If he postpones payment to a later period he becomes liable to criminal prosecution, and should be reported to the United States district attorney accordingly. The commissioner will begin criminal prosecution at once in all cases where neglect is shown.

Cleveland Strikers Return to Work.

Cleveland, Oct. 20.—The backbone of the big strike at the mills operated by the American Steel and Wire company has been broken. The granting by Judge Hammond of the injunction restraining the strikers from interfering with the operation of the mill has disheartened the idle men. Wednesday 100 of the strikers went to work and others will follow. The leaders of the strikers announce they will not appeal the injunction case.

OLE MATSON WAS NEAR DEATH'S DOOR

JANESVILLE MAN'S TROUBLE IN RACINE

Was Nearly Drowned While Intoxicated—Has Been Working For Cape & Son, the Contractors, Who Have Been Macadamizing Local Streets—Will Leave Liquor Alone.

Ole Matson, a laboring man who says that Janesville is his home, and that for many years he has been working on the streets in this city for Cape & Son, the Racine contractors, came to grief in Racine this week and nearly lost his life. The Racine Journal of yesterday says:

A man entered the tramp house on Wisconsin street shortly after nine o'clock last night and asked Coroner Stripple for a night's lodging. His hat was gone, he was wet from head to foot and he was nearly chilled to death and claimed that he had tumbled into the river and narrowly escaped being drowned, and all that saved him was the fact that he was a good swimmer. His story was a thrilling one. He said that his name was Ole Matson, and that he lived at Janesville, where he had been working for Charles Cape, who is putting in a sewer. He came in on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway train and left the train at the depot and supposed that he started toward the city, but being under the influence of liquor, did not have a clear recollection. But he remembers that a few moments after he tumbled and went into the river. The cold bath sobered him up and he commenced to swim, and succeeded in getting hold of a boat or the dock, and managed to crawl out, no person assisting him. This morning he left the tramp house, after thanking Mr. Stripple for lodging and kindness, and said he believed that the best thing he could do was to leave liquor alone.

WEDDING SURPRISE FOR FOREST CITY

FORMER JANESVILLE GIRL THE BRIDE.

Miss Ina Stevens Weds Harry Lewis—
Ceremony Was Performed In Chicago Yesterday and But Few Knew
Of Their Engagement—Groom Has Many Friends Here.

A wedding that will be a surprise to many in this city was performed in Chicago yesterday, the contracting parties both being well known in this city. The bride is Miss Ina Stevens, a former well known Janesville girl, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens, who formerly resided at the corner of Court and Sinclair streets. The groom is Harry Lewis, of Rockford, who makes it a point to be in Janesville every few days as traveling representative for the wholesale cigar firm of Fay, Lewis Bros. & Co.

Wedded at the Victoria.
The nuptial event, in which many people in this city will be interested, took place at the Victoria hotel in the presence of only a small company of relatives.

Miss Stevens is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens, and is a very pretty and accomplished young lady. Of late years she has made her home with her mother in Ironwood, Mich. Miss Stevens is possessed of a charming disposition and winsome ways, for it took all these qualities and more to win the heart of the handsome young cigar salesman.

Groom Well Spoken Of.
No young man in Rockford is better known or has more friends than Harry Lewis. He has grown to sterling manhood there and developed into a most keen business man. For several years he has been on the road for the firm in which he is interested, and has a wide circle of acquaintances in his territory throughout the northwest.

The congratulations which will be showered on him and his bride on their return to Rockford will be many and sincere. A host of Janesville friends will join in extending best wishes.

It Was Done in Short Order.
The Chicago Chronicle thus notes the wedding.

A jubilee wedding ceremony was performed in the parlors of the Victoria hotel yesterday afternoon. The participants, Harry W. Lewis, of Rockford, and Miss Ina Stevens, of Ironwood, Mich., had come to Chicago for the celebration of the peace jubilee. They saw the parade, cheered the president and applauded the soldiers, and then went back to the hotel and prepared for the nuptial ceremony. Friends of the groom, who had accompanied him from Rockford, had attended to the details of the wedding. Judge Gibbons was summoned about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and an hour later the two jubilee visitors were man and wife. A wedding feast was spread in the ladies' ordinary, and after partaking of it the bride and groom started eastward on their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in Rockford.

Diets-Hauffmann.
At the home of Rev. E. H. Pence Sunday afternoon the marriage of Mrs. Louisa Hauffmann to Charles Dietsch was celebrated. Leonard Marquette and Miss Emma Hauffmann were witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Dietsch are now at home at 211 North Main street.

REFORMING PENAL DISCIPLINE

Commission to Consider Changes For the Benefit of Prisoners.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 20.—A meeting of the state prison commission, appointed by Governor Scofield to investigate the present penal system and to report suggestions for reform, will meet in this city on November 12, and will consider some radical changes in the present system of confining and employing the law-breakers of the state. The commission is composed of B. A. Burlington, of Eau Claire, John L. Sturtevant, of Waupaca, and David C. Green, of Milwaukee. The members have attended the national prison congress, just held at Indianapolis, and will invite to their meeting the state board of control and representatives of different labor organizations to present their views as to useful changes in the methods of treating criminals in confinement. George W. Bishop and N. B. Treat, members of the Wisconsin state board of control, who also attended the prison congress at Indianapolis, returned home today, and will also attend the meeting.

DEMOCRATIC RING DESPERATE

Makes Lots of Din, But Cannot Clock the Issue.

The democrats are having a hard time these days. They know they must stand or fall on their platform, yet they want to keep their principles in the background. They want to shirk all responsibility for free silver and Bryanism, yet if the ticket wins, the candidates are pledged to further the principles there enunciated to the best of their ability.

Democracy seeks to get votes under false pretenses, and to hide the wolf, dons the sheep's clothing. The head is fooled. The democratic ring found it an easy job to fool the delegates at the county convention and nominate the ring ticket, but the three men composing the aforesaid democratic ring, find it an uphill job when they seek to control the people of Rock county. The ringsters may fill the air with din, but noise does not count, and the republican ticket gains new strength each day.

CHARITY FOR FIRE SUFFERERS

Contributions Are More Liberal of Late
In This City.

Janesville people have been more generous and open hearted during the past few days in regard to the wants of the fire sufferers in the northern prairies. A large amount of wearing apparel has been given during the past few days, and a shipment will soon be made from here. Several of the surrounding towns are far ahead of Janesville in the way of extending charity. At Monroe six large boxes of clothing and bedding and something like $150 in money have gone for the fire sufferers. The boxes have been packed and shipped.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS OF THE SEASON

BRILLIANT PARTY OF LADIES
AUXILIARY TO TRAINMEN

Army Was the Scene Of An Elegant
Ball Last Evening—Pleasant Five
O'clock Tea—Receptions and Card
Parties—St. Joseph's Convent
Fair.

The ball of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen at the Armory last evening was an unquestioned success. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and portraits of the heroes of the recent war were displayed upon the walls. That of Admiral Dewey took fire from a near by gas jet, and for a moment there was something of a commotion in the hall. The blaze was quickly extinguished, however, and "on with the dance" became the cry.

From the center of the ceiling depended a large locomotive bell trimmed with flowers, and on the walls and in the ante rooms there were various emblems of the engineers' occupation. Something like a hundred and thirty couples were present, and to the music of Smith's orchestra the ladies and gentlemen tripped the light fantastic toe till an early hour this morning. Supper was served at midnight at Schmidley's.

Much credit for the success of the ball is due to the floor managers and committee of arrangements. The floor committee was composed of Miss Margaret McCue, Mrs. J. J. Dulin, Mrs. J. W. McCue and Mrs. M. J. Norton.

The committee of arrangements having the affair in charge consisted of Miss Margaret McCue, Mrs. J. J. Dulin and Mrs. James Gallagher.

PRESIDENT'S GRAVE WORDS.

Important Speech at the Banquet in Chicago.

OUR DUTIES AND DESTINY.

Grave Results of the War Require Calm Deliberation and High Statesmanship—Splendid Tribute Paid to the Army and Navy.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Before a mighty throng which filled the great balconies of the Auditorium, which choked the aisles and crowded every foot of standing room in the temporary banquet hall, President McKinley last night gave some hint of what his policy is upon territorial expansion.

No public utterance of the president previous to that at Wednesday night's banquet was fraught with so much meaning to the country. None gave so clear a vision of the views of the executive on the question of expansion which has become paramount in the discussions of the nation.

"We cannot if we would and we would not if we could escape the obligations of victory," said President McKinley.

That was the cue for the applause for the banqueters and the thousand or more spectators in the galleries construed his words to suit their own desires.

"Duty makes destiny," said the president a few moments later, and again the applause was vociferous.

The president spoke in part as follows:

"With no feeling of exultation, but with profound thankfulness, we contemplate the events of the past five months. They have been too serious to admit of boasting or vainglorification. They have been too full of responsibilities, immediate and prospective, as to admonish the most conservative action.

"The war has put upon the nation grave responsibilities. Their extent was not anticipated and could not have been well foreseen. We cannot escape the obligations of victory. We cannot avoid the serious questions which have been brought home to us by the achievements of our arms on land and sea.

"We are bound in conscience to keep and perform the covenants which the war has sacredly sealed with mankind. Accepting war for humanity's sake, we must accept all obligations imposed upon us.

"The war with Spain was undertaken not that the United States should increase its territory, but that oppression at our very doors should be stopped. This noble sentiment must continue to animate us, and we must give to the world the full demonstration of the sincerity of our purpose.

"Duty determines destiny. Destiny which results from duty performed may bring anxiety and perils, but never failure and dishonor. It is not within the power of man to foretell the future and to solve unerringly its mighty problems. Almighty God has His plans and methods for human progress, and not infrequently they are shrouded for the time being in impenetrable mystery. Looking backward we can see how the hand of destiny builded for us and assigned us tasks whose full meaning was not apprehended even by the wisest statesmen of their times.

"Our colonial ancestors did not enter upon their war originally for independence. Abraham Lincoln did not start out to free the slaves, but to save the union. The war with Spain was not of our seeking, and some of its consequences may not be to our liking. Our vision is often defective. Short-sightedness is a common malady, but the closer we get to things or they get to us the clearer our view and the less obscure our duty.

"The progress of a nation can alone prevent degeneration. There must be new life and purpose or there will be weakness and decay. There must be broadening of thought as well as broadening of trade.

"Territorial expansion is not alone and always necessary to national advancement. There must be a constant movement toward a higher and nobler civilization, a civilization that shall make its conquests without resort to war and achieve its greatest victories pursuing the arts of peace.

"In our present situation duty—and duty alone—should prescribe the boundary of our responsibilities and the scope of our undertakings.

"The final determination of our purposes awaits the action of the eminent men who are charged by the executive with the making of the treaty of peace, and that of the senate of the United States, which, by our constitution, must ratify and confirm it. We all hope and pray that the confirmation of peace will be as just and humane as the conduct and consummation of the war.

"When the work of the treaty-makers is done the work of the lawmakers will begin. The one will settle the extent of our responsibilities; the other must provide the legislation to meet them.

"The army and navy have nobly and heroically performed their part. May God give the executive and congress wisdom to perform theirs."

PARADE AT CHICAGO.

At Least Six Hundred Thousand People Witnessed It.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Victors in battles by sea and land from Jacky and high private to major general and admiral, and an army of the civic host, all led by President McKinley, commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, passed in review before the eyes of Chicago and the middle west yesterday.

Nearly every city, town and hamlet within 500 miles of Chicago, and many at greater distances, furnished a quota that swelled the throng that came together in one accord to do homage to the victors of the Spanish-American war.

Ten thousand marched or rode in the parade. How many people looked on nobody knows. Estimates of the countless number of onlookers made by many of the 1,500 policemen in charge of the multitude ran from 500,000 to 1,000,000. The railroads have brought 200,000 visitors to Chicago. Yesterday the surface lines carried 1,184,000 passengers. Perhaps 600,000 onlookers is near the correct figure.

Railway Collision in Ohio.

Bellaire, O., Oct. 20.—The fast New York-Chicago passenger train No. 7, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, left this city Wednesday morning with engines 703 and 752. Engineers Congers and Williams, hauling a heavy train composed of the unlucky number of thirteen cars. About sixty-five miles west of here, when going down a grade at a terrific speed into New Concord, the train ran into the rear end of west-bound freight train No. 25, 200 yards east of the depot. The two passenger engines plowed into the caboose and through six cars loaded with coke. Conductor Samuel Paxton of the freight train was caught in the caboose and instantly killed. His rear brakeman, George Frost, was caught in the wreck and badly injured. The fireman of engine 703 was fatally injured. None of the passengers was hurt.

Three Dead at Youngstown.

Youngstown, O., Oct. 20.—William H. Branton, a grocer, last night shot Constable John Jenkins and then sent a bullet through the brain of his wife and ended the chapter of homicide by shooting himself through the right temple, falling dead at the feet of his victims. Eight months ago Branton married Miss Minnie Kennedy. Recently she left him, complaining of his ill treatment. Last night she accompanied a constable with a writ of replevin for her clothing to her former home, and the tragedy followed.

Scottish May Pardon Koetting.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 20.—It is reported that Gov. Scofield will issue to John R. Koetting a formal pardon in order that the imprisoned banker may retain his civil rights. Koetting was the cashier of the South Side Savings bank of this city, and he was sentenced to a five-year term in the penitentiary for wrecking the institution. The failure was one of the worst ever known in this state, and many poor people had their savings swept away. Koetting's term expires today.

Miles Going to Washington.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The war department was notified that Maj.-Gen. Miles would return to Washington tomorrow to resume his official duties as commanding general of the army. Secretary Alger expressed himself as very much gratified over the enthusiasm with which the general had been greeted.

Emperor Closely Guarded.

Shanghai, Oct. 20.—The Mercury publishes a dispatch from its correspondent at Peking, saying that the French physician who made a medical examination of the condition of the emperor of China reports that he found his majesty in fair health, but evidently under the strictest surveillance of the court officers.

Rhode Island Mills to Run.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 20.—The leading cotton mill agent here says that Rhode Island mills will not follow the example of Fall River factories this fall and curtail production. Business, they report, is very dull, but they believe that they will be able to run steadily for some time without shutting off steam.

GOOD IN PEACE OR WAR

There are many reasons why the straight republican ticket should be voted this fall. The Spokane, Washington, Chronicle gives one of them:

The incontrovertible figures of the bulletins issued by the Bureau of Statistics will not permit the Dingley Tariff law to be lost from sight. Democrats, populists and other opponents of the republican policy cannot get around the fact that the Dingley law is pulling steadily in the right direction and pulling up statistics for the discomfiture of rice-traders. The double imports for August amounted to $27,919,693, and the imports free of duty to $21,359,693, total imports, $49,179,386. The exports of merchandise for August amounted to $34,608,774; excess of exports over imports, $35,429,388; increase of exports over August last year, $4,216,276. Even in a war month, we sold more abroad than we bought.

Our imports for the first eight months of 1898 were valued at $28,261,038 and the exports at $778,675,025; excess of exports over imports, $352,262,937. This represents a foreign trade of $1,205,086,063 for the eight months, or $1,807,629,389 for the year.

The Dingley law put a balance of trade in favor of the United States and has held it there during the last four months under the extraordinary condition of a foreign war.

The republican party stands for good government while the Bryanites stand for free silver and populism. The democrats have made this the issue by endorsing the Chicago platform and try as they will they cannot dodge the responsibility.

NOT BROUGHT BY LUCK.

New York Press—"Prosperity has been here now a year, keeping pace evenly with the steps of the administration of its advance agent. It was not brought by luck. It was not brought—nor was it dissipated—by war. It came by the execution into facts of the two watchwords of the campaign of 1896, 'Sound Money and Protection.' And it would stay—be there no mistake as to that—for not one moment after in the popular ear the echo of those watchwords died. In all the shifts and changes of party strife this is the one fact for plain people, business people, working people to bear in mind."

Oscar D. Rowe has made an exceptionally accurate and accommodating register of deeds. The important records of his office have been kept with absolute fidelity, and the taxpayers, who want service for their money, realize the fact, and Mr. Rowe's majority will be unusually large this fall.

Madison Journal—This man O'Connor who is traveling the state making free silver, populist speeches, and arraigning the republicans for dishonesty and extravagance, is the very same fellow who advised the governor that the roster steal was all right. The people will not forget him.

County Treasurer Thorpe, who comes from Evansville, is an excellent treasurer and has watched over the people's money with scrupulous care. He will be reelected, as he should be, by an increased majority this fall.

J. L. O'Connor's judgment on political matters may be as faulty as his legal judgment was when he was attorney general. He is the man who told ex-Gov. Peck that the roster job was a legal transaction.

And democracy has come to a pass where brave old General Bragg is cursed while Populist Schindler is coddled! What a contrast!

MOSES DISMISSED LEAHEY INDICTED

FINDING OF GRAND JURY AT MADISON

Cases Of Local Interest Passed On Today—Evidence Not Strong Enough Against Levi Moses, Jr., Who Is Said to Have Written Saucy Letters.

Levi Moses, Jr., of the local furniture firm of Moses Bros., was today dismissed by the grand jury, which met in Madison, as being the defendant in the suit United States vs. Levi Moses, Jr.

In the case of the United States vs. Thomas Leahey, also of this city, the grand jury indicted Mr. Leahey, which means that he will be obliged to stand trial on the charge of having used money belonging to the government while acting as registry clerk at the Janesville postoffice.

A frivolous charge

Mr. Moses was arrested in this city on the evening of Thursday, August 25, 1898, by United States officials who charged him with violating the postal laws in writing a postal card to Miss Ada Baxter, of Cleveland, O. Miss Baxter is the daughter of Mrs. Emmett Miles, formerly of this city and at the time that Mr. Moses wrote her the postal card it was claimed that he was madly in love with her, and that he threatened her through the mails because she would not listen to his earnest pleadings. Miss Baxter alleged that she was afraid of Mr. Moses, so violent did he get in his threats, so she lost no time in referring the matter to the postal officials, who caused his arrest. Mr. Moses was brought before United States Commissioner L. F. Patton and was placed under $300 bonds. At the time of his arrest his numerous friends predicted his vindication, and the action of the Grand Jury today was gratifying to the defendant.

Thomas Leahey held.

Thomas Leahey, of this city, was not so fortunate in his case, and the grand jury, after going over it carefully, held him for trial, having found by the evidence submitted that they could hardly do anything else under the circumstances. Mr. Leahey was arrested in this city on the morning of Friday, August 26, by Deputy United States Marshal G. W. Lewis, of Madison, on the charge of having embezzled funds from the United States government while acting as clerk at the Janesville postoffice. The amount alleged to have been taken was $101.96. When the case was called in this city before United States Commissioner L. F. Patton the court held the defendant on the technical point of having used money that belonged to the United States government, and not on the charge of having stolen it. At that time Mr. Leahey made good all money used by him, but even this did not clear him of the charge, and the court could do nothing else but hold him to the grand jury. Mr. Leahey has been out on $350 bail. His trial will probably be held at the next term of the United States court in Madison.

KIDNAPPERS ARE ARRESTED HERE

FOND DU LAC PARTIES MADE PRISONERS

Arrested While Coming From a Local Second Hand Store—Quick Work By the Janesville Police—Both Admit That They Are the Guilty Ones.

Chief Hogan and Officer Appleby this morning placed F. Collins and his sister, Mrs. Katie Goodfellow, of Fond du Lac, under arrest on the charge of kidnapping.

The abduction of Collins' three year old child was the offense named in the complaint.

Collins and Mrs. Goodfellow live in Fond du Lac. According to dispatches received by the Janesville police Mr. and Mrs. Collins have not been living together. Mrs. Collins has had the custody of the child. Collins and his sister objected to this and getting the little one to the C. & N. W. depot they took the first train for Janesville. Their destination was discovered and a full description was telephoned to Officer Appleby. Not twenty minutes afterward Collins and Mrs. Goodfellow walked in to a second hand store and tried to sell a clock. When they left the store the police were waiting for them.

A telegram was sent to the Fond du Lac police at once, and they will be down on the evening train.

HE HAD PRIDE.

And Accordingly Took Various Methods of Proving It.

There is an excellent baritone singer at present engaged in London concert halls who takes a proper pride in his voice and the town of his birth—the metropolis. Many are the stories told of this gentleman, and his personality will be readily recognized by the profession. Three of the legends may bear repetition.

The vocalist was fulfilling an engagement at Nottingham, and some choice local spirits were showing him round town. They considerably annoyed him by pointing out their public buildings and asking whether the architecture could be equaled in London. He suffered in silence for a long time, inwardly stifling his wrath, but the last straw came when they took him to the banks of the Trent and asked him how it compared with the Thames.

With a snarl of rage and without divesting himself of a single garment the vocalist deliberately walked slap into the stream, wading straight to the center, where the water was just above his middle. To the consternation and utter discomfiture of his friends he stamped his feet and waved his arms in a kind of highland fling and then, with inextinguishable scorn, cried out:

"Do that in the Thames, you beggars!"

The same gentleman was once crossing Westminster bridge when he met Ned Dixon, a champion clog dancer. Ned was wrapped up in coats and comforters, suffering from a sore throat.

"What's that wrapper round your neck for?" asked the singer.

"Got a bad cold and can't work," replied Ned.

"A 'bad cold and can't work' is the privilege of an artist," returned the vocalist, "and not of a clog dancer. Take that handkerchief off your neck and wrap it round your feet. That's where you want it most!"

Our friend once got into an argument with a navy, who called him a penniless counter jumper.

"Penniless!" yelled the singer. "You miserable 18 shillings a week pauper! Listen! Tra-la-la-la!" He trotted out a scale in his best voice, and then cried:

"There, worm! There's your month's wages gone!"—Ally Sloper.

How It Was.

"How is it," said a citizen, meeting an acquaintance, "that you manage to wear such good clothes? If you would not expend so much on dress, you might be able to repay that sum of money you borrowed from me."

"It is evident you do not understand the situation," the acquaintance replied. "If I did not dress well, I could not borrow money. I bought these clothes with the money I borrowed from you. I am out of business, you know, and if I didn't keep myself in presentable shape, why, I'd come out at the contracted end of the wind instrument."—New York World.

Vindictive to the Last.

"What will you have for breakfast?" asked the jailer.

"Buckwheat cakes and a cup of chocolate," replied the condemned murderer. He was to be hanged in two hours, and he took a malicious delight in the reflection that all the reporters probably had written "the condemned man breakfasted heartily on ham and eggs, fried potatoes and coffee."—Chicago Tribune.

A Nautical Custody.

A curiosity among curiosities is an old vessel high and dry upon the sands by Ponle Harbor, which affords a barrack for coast guards off South Devon, in Dorsetshire, England. Propped up by stout timber, it stands a whimsical object, amid the coarse grass and rank vegetation of the foreshore, while the ships go by in sight of it, and the coast guards scan the offing with their telescopes from its decks.

A Death of Game.

"Hear about Gunning? While out hunting the other day he shot a pointer for which he had paid $125."

"What was the matter—were there no men in the vicinity?"—Chicago News.

The Corn Fed Philosopher.

"A woman," said the corn fed philosopher, "gets mad at a man if he be awkward in making love, and gets madder if he makes love as if he had lots of experience."—Indianapolis Journal.

Stepping Stones.

Honolulu and Guam—Yes, and Luzon too—Stepping stones for Uncle Sam's "Cross Pacific's blue."

When he thinks he'd like to fit O'er the ocean bed, Needn't wet his feet a bit—That's what Dewey said.

Nicely placed and spaced are they—Just an easy stride; Dewey knows the entire way And a lot besides.

A NOTABLE ANNIVERSARY.

A. O. U. W. To Celebrate the Thirtieth Milestone in Its Existence.

The thirtieth anniversary of the Ancient Order of United Workmen takes place next Thursday, October 27. The local lodge will hold a celebration in West Side Odd Fellows' hall on the evening of that day. A musical and literary entertainment has been prepared, to which the public will be invited. After the program dancing will follow. All members wishing to invite friends, can procure invitation cards of Milo Thayer, at C. C. Bennett's shoe store. The entertainment will be a complimentary one.

The order in this city has grown very rapidly of late years, and the membership has increased with great rapidity. Its financial condition is excellent, and the social features of the order are constantly improving in character and increasing in interest.

All those holding invitations must present them to the doctender, or they will not be admitted.

HE HAD PRIDE.

And Accordingly Took Various Methods of Proving It.

There is an excellent baritone singer at present engaged in London concert halls who takes a proper pride in his voice and the town of his birth—the metropolis. Many are the stories told of this gentleman, and his personality will be readily recognized by the profession. Three of the legends may bear repetition.

The vocalist was fulfilling an engagement at Nottingham, and some choice local spirits were showing him round town. They considerably annoyed him by pointing out their public buildings and asking whether the architecture could be equaled in London. He suffered in silence for a long time, inwardly stifling his wrath, but the last straw came when they took him to the banks of the Trent and asked him how it compared with the Thames.

With a snarl of rage and without divesting himself of a single garment the vocalist deliberately walked slap into the stream, wading straight to the center, where the water was just above his middle. To the consternation and utter discomfiture of his friends he stamped his feet and waved his arms in a kind of highland fling and then, with inextinguishable scorn, cried out:

"Do that in the Thames, you beggars!"

The same gentleman was once crossing Westminster bridge when he met Ned Dixon, a champion clog dancer. Ned was wrapped up in coats and comforters, suffering from a sore throat.

"What's that wrapper round your neck for?" asked the singer.

"Got a bad cold and can't work," replied Ned.

"A 'bad cold and can't work' is the privilege of an artist," returned the vocalist, "and not of a clog dancer. Take that handkerchief off your neck and wrap it round your feet. That's where you want it most!"

Our friend once got into an argument with a navy, who called him a penniless counter jumper.

"Penniless!" yelled the singer. "You miserable 18 shillings a week pauper! Listen! Tra-la-la-la!" He trotted out a scale in his best voice, and then cried:

"There, worm! There's your month's wages gone!"—Ally Sloper.

How It Was.

"How is it," said a citizen, meeting an acquaintance, "that you manage to wear such good clothes? If you would not expend so much on dress, you might be able to repay that sum of money you borrowed from me."

"It is evident you do not understand the situation," the acquaintance replied. "If I did not dress well, I could not borrow money. I bought these clothes with the money I borrowed from you. I am out of business, you know, and if I didn't keep myself in presentable shape, why, I'd come out at the contracted end of the wind instrument."—New York World.

Vindictive to the Last.

"What will you have for breakfast?" asked the jailer.

"Buckwheat cakes and a cup of chocolate," replied the condemned murderer. He was to be hanged in two hours, and he took a malicious delight in the reflection that all the reporters probably had written "the condemned man breakfasted heartily on ham and eggs, fried potatoes and coffee."—Chicago Tribune.

A Nautical Custody.

A curiosity among curiosities is an old vessel high and dry upon the sands by Ponle Harbor, which affords a barrack for coast guards off South Devon, in Dorsetshire, England. Propped up by stout timber, it stands a whimsical object, amid the coarse grass and rank vegetation of the foreshore, while the ships go by in sight of it, and the coast guards scan the offing with their telescopes from its decks.

A Death of Game.

"Hear about Gunning? While out hunting the other day he shot a pointer for which he had paid $125."

"What was the matter—were there no men in the vicinity?"—Chicago News.

The Corn Fed Philosopher.

"A woman," said the corn fed philosopher, "gets mad at a man if he be awkward in making love, and gets madder if he makes love as if he had lots of experience."—Indianapolis Journal.

Stepping Stones.

Honolulu and Guam—Yes, and Luzon too—Stepping stones for Uncle Sam's "Cross Pacific's blue."

When he thinks he'd like to fit O'er the ocean bed, Needn't wet his feet a bit—That's what Dewey said.

DEMOCRATS SELECT MISS HAVILAND

ENDORSE HER REGARDLESS OF STATE LAWS

She Has Already Been Placed in Nomination By the Prohibition Party—No Delegates Were On Hand At Today's Convention—Who Placed Her in Nomination.

Miss Dora Haviland was placed on the democratic ticket today as a candidate for superintendent of schools in the second district.

Miss Haviland is also the nominee on the prohibition ticket, and must choose between the two tickets if the Schindler case in Milwaukee is any precedent.

In that case it was held that a candidate's name could appear on but one ticket.

The democratic convention was called for 2:30 this afternoon at the court house but no delegates appeared. Three quarters of an hour later, Chairman J. J. Cunningham, of the county democratic committee, came out of an executive session he was holding with himself and said Miss Haviland had been nominated.

There were no speeches and everything passed off harmoniously.

Unmistakable.

"What a precocious child that boy of Trivinus' is!" exclaimed the cross grained citizen.

"Why, it sits for hours without saying a word."

"I know it. That's more than its father can do."—Washington Star.

A Nest Rebuke.

"Don't imagine," said General Kitchener with great politeness, "that you are an entire circus calliope just because you can bowl."

And the discomfited dervish chief stalked gloomily away. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Hobby of a Scotch Printer.

From the Westminster Gazette: Some men have queer hobbies and a remarkable one is that of a Glasgow man who has spent the leisure of four years in rewriting the scriptures. He is a compositor, with a wonderful gift of turning out beautiful writing, and in the time mentioned he has managed to reach the middle of the Psalms. In two years he anticipates that the concluding verses will have been written. A feature of this remarkable Bible will be its illustrations. Each chapter has its artistically designed initial letter, and each book a pictorial heading illustrative of the context. The writer is a native of Dumfries, and in his boyhood days ran errands for Carlyle, to whom he carried the local morning paper.

ARE LEAVING AGUINALDO.

Many Philippine Rebels Desert to the Spaniards.

REPORT OF BATTLE DENIED.

Story from Madrid Says the Americans Have Destroyed Ships of the Filipinos—Washington Authorities Disbelieve the Report.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The situation in Manila is peaceful, according to a dispatch received at the war department from Gen. Otis. In his review of the situation the general says Aguinaldo is rapidly losing his influence with the Filipinos and that many of his men are deserting and giving their sympathy and support to the Spaniards, believing that the Americans will return the islands to the old enemy. This information and a great deal more has been transmitted to the American commissioners in Paris.

Madrid, Oct. 20.—At the meeting of the cabinet Wednesday Capt. Anon, minister of marine, read a cable dispatch from Manila stating that the Americans, considering the rebel flag to be a piratical flag, had attacked and destroyed many of the rebel ships after an engagement in which there were casualties on both sides.

Prime Minister Sagasta says that Gen. Ortega, who was second in command under Capt.-Gen. Macias in Porto Rico, will sail for Spain on Oct. 25.

The reported destruction of the ships belonging to the insurgents arose from the Filipinos disobeying Admiral Dewey's order that was mentioned some time ago, to the effect that if the rebels' ships flew the flag of the Philippine republic they would be treated as pirates. The Americans seized what vessels they did not destroy.

The scene of the reported engagement is not stated, but it is supposed to have been Manila bay.

Story Discredited in Washington.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The Madrid story of a battle between Americans and insurgents is believed by well-informed men in Washington to be another chapter from the fake foundry organized at Madrid as soon as the peace commissioners reached Paris. It will be remembered that soon after reaching Paris the Madrid and Paris newspapers began to print accounts of "Spanish victories over the insurgents in the Philippines" and others of the "troubles of Americans in managing Aguinaldo." They told of thousands of rebels being defeated by Gen. Rios, and the killed and wounded enumerated in a very exact and plausible manner; but it soon developed that there was not the slightest warrant for the stories. It pleased the Spaniards, no doubt, and they believed they could pull the wool over the eyes of some one, as they were accustomed to some months ago. Any Philippine story coming from Madrid, particularly if it concerns Americans, ought to be carefully weighed. If the American troops have had an engagement with the Filipinos or any one else in the Philippines since the fall of Manila the news has not reached Washington. With a direct cable, it is quite likely that this government would hear of such an occurrence.

It is not outside the bounds of probability that some of the ships seized by the Americans were claimed by the Filipinos; but that there has been a battle or anything approaching it, in securing possession of them, is doubted by every one who heard the report.

SPANIARDS CAN GO OR STAY.

United States Will Take Control of All Cuba Dec. 1.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The news from Havana that the American evacuation commissioners had declined to grant the request of the Spanish commissioners for an extension of the limit of evacuation beyond Dec. 1 was read with interest in official circles. It follows naturally in the instructions given to the American commissioners not to recede from their notification to their opponents that the United States would assume control of Cuba on Dec. 1, whether all the Spanish troops had left the island or not.

Dewey Remains On Guard.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Secretary Long said that the reports that Admiral Dewey would return to the United States were erroneous, as the navy department had no such information. It has been suggested to Admiral Dewey several times that he go to Paris to advise the American peace commission on the situation in the Philippines, but he has adhered to his purpose to remain at Manila until the Philippine question has been settled or all danger of trouble there has passed.

Troops Leave Porto Rico.

New York, Oct. 20.—Col. A. S. Kimball, the quartermaster here, has received word from Washington that the transport Manitoba, with the Third Wisconsin regiment, sailed from Porto Rico Wednesday, and is expected here about Oct. 25. The transport Mississippi also left Porto Rico with the Sixth Massachusetts.

It will demand all the documents bearing on the case and call witnesses, including Lieut.-Col. Picquart.
